This brought the sphere on the three-yard line. Krause was easily pushed over on the next play. With only a half minute left to play. Seth Smith kicked goal.

This ended the half, with the score 6 to 6 in favor of Washington.

The Polys were somewhat exhaused in the second half, and three changes were made in the line-up during the last period. The scoond touchdown for the locals was made after rine minutes of play in the second half. Smith, after the ball had been worked to the twenty-eight-yard line, made a left-end run and second later he kicked goal.

Three minutes later Krause was sent over from the ten-yard line and scored the third touchdown, but Smith falled to kick.
